

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

CASE NO. MJ22-263

V.

DETENTION ORDER

DAVID URIETA TORRES,

Defendant.

The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) and concludes there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

Defendant appeared on a warrant issued in April 2021 by the District of Arizona.

Defendant was convicted in that district and placed upon supervised release. When he was released from custody, he was not removed or deported. He thus was required to contact the Probation Office to begin his supervision. He failed to do so and has been at large until his arrest in this District. Defendant's conduct shows he is clearly a risk of flight and thus should be detained.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

(4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States Marshal, and to the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 15th day of June, 2022.

BRIAN A. TSUCHIDA
United States Magistrate Judge
